32.01 PURPOSE. This chapter is intended to provide a prosecutorial alternative to law enforcement officials of the sheriff's office and the district attorney for certain acts which may otherwise be violations of the state criminal code.

32.02 DEFINITIONS. As used in this chapter,

- (1) Adopted statute means any provision of the state criminal code that is adopted as a part of this chapter.
- (2) State criminal code refers to all of the following:
  - (a) the entirety of chapters 941 to 948 and chapter 951, Wis. Stats.;
  - (b) s. 961.41(3g)(e), Wis. Stats., if the amount of tetrahydrocannabinols included under s. 961.14(4)(t), Wis. Stats., or a controlled substance analog of tetrahydrocannabinols, involved is less than 25 grams; and
  - (c) s. 961.573, Wis. Stats.
- (3) Unless otherwise expressly modified in this chapter, the various provisions and definitions in an adopted statute are likewise incorporated into this chapter and in the application of this chapter, are to be construed in the same manner as in the application of the adopted statute.
- (4) Any reference to the terms "crime", "misdemeanor", or "felony" in an adopted statute is replaced with the term "offense" as the statute is incorporated into this chapter.
- (5) References to the terms "criminal intent", "criminal recklessness", or "criminal negligence" in an adopted statute are replaced, respectively, with the terms "intent", "recklessness", or "negligence" as the statute is incorporated into this chapter.
